REFLECTION

(Is 50:5-9). This reading is an excerpt from the third of the Servant

Songs of Second Isaiah. The servant's message evidently meets with opposition and results in persecution. But he absorbs all the physical and mental abuse directed at him without retaliating. The insults don't really touch him, because he is confident that God will help and vindicate him. This ties in with Jesus' prediction of the passion in the gospel.

Jesus, too, is confident that God will vindicate him by raising him from the dead. The New Testament sees Jesus as the suffering servant par excellence.

(Mk 8:27-35). We have now entered Part Two of Mark's Gospel (8:27-16:8).

After having been consistently rejected and misunderstood despite all he has said and done, Jesus starts to proclaim the necessity of the suffering of the Son of Man. In today's passage we have Peter's profession of faith. In response to that confession, Jesus makes a threefold disclosure: that the Messiah must suffer, that his disciples must be prepared to share his suffering, and that his and their suffering will ultimately lead to glory. Peter's reaction is but the natural reaction of those who shrink from suffering. The meaning of the term "Messiah" that was current at that time was that of a political, nationalistic leader. Jesus consistently rejected that idea as a diabolical attempt to divert him from his God-given mission.

(Jm 2:14-18). Here Jesus insists on the value and necessity of good works.

Authentic religion consists just as much in help given to orphans and widows in their need as in cultic practices; otherwise, ritual observance is vain and empty

Readings for the Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time Year B
12th September 2021

First reading:

A reading from the prophet Isaiah 50: 5-9
I gave my body to those who struck me.

Responsorial Psalm: 146

I love the Lord, because he has heard my voice and my supplications.
Because he inclined his ear to me,
therefore I will call on him as long as I live.
The snares of death encompassed me;
the pangs of Sheol laid hold on me;
I suffered distress and anguish.
Then I called on the name of the Lord:
“O Lord, I pray, save my life!”
Gracious is the Lord, and righteous;
our God is merciful.
The Lord protects the simple;
when I was brought low, he saved me.
For you have delivered my soul from death,
my eyes from tears, my feet from stumbling.
I will walk before the Lord
in the land of the living.

JESUS CARES

Second reading:

A reading from the letter of St James 2: 14-18
Faith without good works is dead.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia!

May I never boast of anything except the Cross of the Lord,
by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.
Alleluia!

Gospel:

A reading from the holy Gospel
according to Mark 8: 27-35
You are the Christ ...
The Son of Man
was destined to suffer much.
